

Promoting Peace Decalogue

1. I become aware of my social responsibility when creating content on social media.

2. I decide to promote peaceful coexistence and social friendship, which require dialogue and collaboration from everyone.

3. I'm an agent of change to avoid polarization in a landscape of social and individual conflicts fostered or promoted by social media.

4. I actively participate to prevent polarization in a landscape of conflicts that are fostered or promoted through social media.

5. I do not respond aggressively to haters; I pray for them.

6. I avoid using

history aggressively because no one is guilty of historical events that occurred before our birth.

7. I avoid simplistic narratives about complex problems because I understand that nothing and no one is entirely good or entirely bad.

8. I respect the dignity of every person for simply existing, and I invite my followers to do the same.

9. I collaborate

with other content creators who contribute to promoting peace.

10. As a follower

and friend of Jesus, I pray for the gift of peace and promote forgiveness and reconciliation.
